Coastline Land

Lembeh in North Sulawesi in Indonesia is generally viewed as the world's top muck diving destination. Hairball is probably the most famous dive site in Lembeh.

Prime plot of 27,000 m² (coconut plantation) available (freehold), with fantastic views from about 320 meters of coastline facing Lembeh Island, next to the world famous Hairball dive site. In other words, this property looks over one of the best muck diving sites in the world.

The land has an existing quality 2-room bungalow, staff house, perimeter wall, water & electricity (and back-up generator) and road (& sea) access.

Enquiries welcome.
